Part 6: Strengthening Micro and Rural Finance

Promoting a viable and sustainable micro and rural finance industry with wide outreach operating under an enabling legal and regulatory framework, including strengthening a regulatory framework for micro-finance institutions and cooperative associations, enhancing capacity of supervisors, supporting transformation of micro-finance institutions and cooperative associations umbrella organizations, and creating networks and apex institutions for cooperative and community based associations.
Section I. Subsidiary Financing, Institutional and Other Arrangements

A. Subsidiary Agreement

1. To facilitate the carrying out of the Project by BOT, the Recipient shall make the proceeds of the Financing available to BOT under a subsidiary agreement between the Recipient and BOT, under terms and conditions approved by the Association, which shall include the following obligations of BOT:

   (a) carry out the Project with due diligence and efficiency, in conformity with appropriate administrative, financial and technical practices and in accordance with the Operations Manual, and provide, or cause to be provided, promptly as needed, the facilities, services and other resources required for the Project;

   (b) comply with the procedures for procurement of goods, and consultant services set forth in the Procurement Plan;

   (c) comply with record keeping, auditing and reporting requirements set forth in Section II.B (3) of this Schedule with respect to the Project, including the annual auditing of its records and accounts (operations, resources and expenditure) in respect of the Project;

   (d) at the request of the Recipient or the Association, exchange views with the Recipient and the Association with regard to the progress of the Project and the performance of its obligations under the Subsidiary Agreement; and

   (e) promptly inform the Recipient and the Association of any condition which interferes or threatens to interfere with the progress of the Project, or the performance of its obligations under the Subsidiary Agreement.

2. The Recipient shall exercise its rights under the Subsidiary Agreement in such manner as to protect the interests of the Recipient and the Association and to accomplish the purposes of the Financing. Except as the Association shall otherwise agree, the Recipient shall not assign, amend, abrogate or waive the Subsidiary Agreement or any of its provisions.
B. Institutional Arrangements

1. BOT shall have the responsibility for overall coordination, monitoring, reporting, evaluation and communication of Project activities.

2. Committees

   (a) Without limitation upon the provisions of Part B.1 of this Section, the Recipient shall maintain, at all times until the completion of the Project: (i) an Inter-institutional Committee; and (ii) a Program Coordinating Committee, all with a composition, mandate and resources satisfactory to the Association.

   (b) Without limitation to sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph, the Inter-Institutional Committee shall be responsible for, inter alia: (i) overall strategic direction and oversight of the Program; (ii) reviewing policy and legislative proposals and submitting them for adoption by the Recipient; (iii) reviewing progress made in the implementation of the Project and towards achieving the Project’s objectives. To this end, the Inter-Institutional Committee shall act as an interface between the Recipient and Co-financiers.

   (c) Without limitation to sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph, the Program Coordinating Committee shall be responsible for, inter alia: (i) quality control and reviewing the terms of reference for consulting services and reports prepared by consultants; (ii) reviewing policy and position papers prepared by technical teams and transmitting them to the Inter-Institutional Committee; and (iii) preparing the Annual Work Plan and Budget.

C. Implementation Arrangements

1. Operations Manual. The Recipient shall, cause BOT to carry out the Project in accordance with the arrangements and procedures set out in the Operations Manual (provided, however, that in case of any conflict between the arrangements and procedures set out in the Operations Manual and the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail) and, except as the Association shall otherwise agree, shall not amend, abrogate or waive any provision of the Operations Manual, if such amendment, abrogation or waiver may, in the opinion of the Association, materially or adversely affect the implementation of the Project.
2. Memorandum of Understanding

(a) The Recipient shall cause BOT to implement the Subprograms in accordance with the arrangements and procedures set out in the Memorandum of Understanding; and in Schedule 1 to the Project Agreement, provided, however, that in case of any conflict between the provisions of said memorandum and of this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail.

(b) Except as the Association shall otherwise agree, the Recipient shall not amend, abrogate or waive any provision of the Memorandum of Understanding, if such amendment, abrogation or waiver may, in the opinion of the Association, materially or adversely affect the implementation of the Project.

3. Annual Work Plan and Budget; Subprograms

(a) The Recipient shall cause BOT to prepare and furnish to Association for its joint approval with the Co-financiers, not later than April 15 of each year during the implementation of the Project, or such later date as the Association may agree in consultation with the Co-financiers, the Annual Work Plan and Budget containing all proposed Subprograms to be carried out in the following Fiscal Year, modified in a manner satisfactory to the Association, taking into account the Association’s comments and views on the matter.

(b) The Recipient shall cause BOT to implement, monitor and evaluate each Subprogram in accordance with the provisions set forth in this Agreement, the Project Agreement and in more detail in the Operations Manual, and shall not make or allow to be made any material change to any Subprogram included in the approved Annual Work Plan and Budget without consultation and approval of the Association.

Section II. Project Monitoring, Reporting and Evaluation

A. Project Reports

1. The Recipient shall cause BOT to monitor and evaluate the progress of the Project and prepare Project Reports in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.08 of the General Conditions and on the basis of the indicators set forth below in paragraph 2. Each Project Report shall cover the period of six months, and shall be furnished to the Association not later than forty-five days after the end of the period covered by such report.
2. The performance indicators referred to above in paragraph 1 consist of the following:

(a) credit extended to the private sector (as a percentage of GDP);
(b) interest rate spread (lending versus deposit rates);
(c) proportion of adult population that uses services provided by formal financial service providers; and
