Description of Activities and Expenditures under the REPARIS Multi-Donor Trust Fund

This Annex shall be applicable to and forms an integral part of all agreements entered into between the Bank and entities (collectively, the “Donors”) that provide contributions (the aggregate of all contributions from the Donors, the “Contributions”) to be administered by the Bank for the Trust Fund.

A. Definitions

Unless the context requires otherwise, the capitalized terms used in this Agreement have the following meanings:

(a) “CAP” means Country Action Plan document prepared by each of the Program Countries with detailed action plans for financial reporting reforms and related institutional capacity development activities within the country.

(b) “CFRR” means Centre for Financial Reporting Reform, a unit established by the Bank in Vienna, inter alia, to serve as the REPARIS Program Secretariat.

(c) “CoP” means a Community of Practice; a community of REPARIS stakeholders comprised of policy makers, academia, and professional accounting and auditing bodies from the eight REPARIS Countries.

(d) “MPG” means Market Participants Group which comprises representatives of private sector financial institutions, enterprises and organizations which have pan-regional insights and perspectives on financial reporting in practice in the CFRR’s partner countries. These include, for example, banking groups with branches and subsidiaries in partner countries, institutional and real sector foreign investors in the region, international and regional bodies of accountancy associations and firms, and similar entities.

(e) “Program Countries” or “REPARIS Countries” means Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, FYR Macedonia, Kosovo, Moldova, Montenegro and Serbia. Belarus and Ukraine may participate in selected activities under the REPARIS Program.

(f) “Region” means South Central Europe and South East Europe.

(g) “RLG” means Regulatory Liaison Group chaired by the European Commission which comprises representatives of European Union (“EU”) and international regulatory and standard-setting bodies which play a key role in the determination and enforcement of best practice in the field of corporate sector financial reporting.

B. Background and objective

High quality financial reporting makes a direct contribution to improving the lives of people and reducing poverty, especially in the countries of South Central Europe and South East Europe. As a result of the timely provision of reliable information about the financial position and performance of enterprises, enhanced confidence is brought to the relationship between enterprises (in both the real and the financial sectors, including state owned enterprises) and their stakeholders. This facilitates improved levels of governance and transparency, fosters the development of an enabling business environment and investment climate, and underpins more effective relationships between the corporate sector and the state. In turn, these developments support enhanced mobilization of domestic and foreign savings, improved access to credit, higher levels of private-sector-led growth, and the development of financial and capital markets. Economic growth, combined with equity, is a key contributor to improving people’s lives and the fight against poverty. As has been reconfirmed in recent years by the financial crisis, inadequacies in financial reporting increase the risk of financial instability, the consequences of which are felt disproportionately by the poor, so improvements in financial reporting are an essential element of any public policy response to the crisis. Finally, as issues relating to financial reporting form an important element of the acquis communautaire, improvements in this field are important component of preparing for EU membership, the benefits of which contribute to improving the lives of people and reducing poverty.

The objective of the Trust Fund is to support the implementation of both regional and country-specific activities under the Road to Europe Program for Accounting Reform and Institutional Strengthening (the “REPARIS Program” or the “Program”) with a view to tackling issues shared by the countries in the Region, to promote cooperation among them, and to ensure coordinated actions within a common framework, while facilitating financing and implementation support to the REPARIS Countries in their endeavors to implement financial reporting reforms at the national level as set out in their respective CAPs. The Program aims to achieve the following results:

(a) updated regulatory frameworks for corporate financial reporting within the participating economies, that achieve greater degrees of alignment with the relevant EC acquis communautaire, and that are proportional to the country’s proximity to EU membership.

(b) an increase in long term partnerships with, or memberships of, relevant EU and global peer organizations to achieve sustainability of the accounting education reforms; an increase in the number of countries implementing the EU Statutory Audit Directive auditor education requirements; and an increase in the number of students who are provided with the opportunity to access modern updated undergraduate accounting and auditing education courses.

(c) availability of updated and translated standards in the languages of the REPARIS Countries; financial reporting and statutory audit (and public oversight) arrangements that are better aligned with the requirements of the EC acquis communautaire; a technical support system that will enable more effective implementing and enforcement arrangements throughout the Region; and more effective regulation of financial reporting requirements by prudential supervisors.

(d) performance management system for corporate financial reporting reform activities and a web-based portal containing a repository of information that will guide REPARIS and other countries (and stakeholders within each country) by providing advice, tools, and methodologies to support ongoing implementation of the relevant acquis.

The REPARIS Program provides a framework to ensure a strong integration of assessment, advisory, financial, operational, and monitoring and evaluation (M&E) support to the countries in the Region in their reform efforts to achieve compliance with the requirements of the acquis communautaire in the field of corporate reporting, and seeks to:

(a) help the REPARIS Countries establish strong institutional and regulatory frameworks necessary for increased transparency, for effective functioning of the internal market and for mitigation of the risks of financial system crises; and

(b) assist in institutional, regulatory and accounting capacity development, alongside the EU, other development partners, and private and public sector stakeholders, to improve the business environment and investment climate and to facilitate REPARIS Countries’ integration into the EU.

C. DESCRIPTION OF ACTIVITIES

(a) Bank-Executed Trust Fund Activities:

(i) Reform Momentum and Regional Cooperation. Reinforce the accounting and audit reform momentum and regional cooperation by organizing a series of videoconferences and hold high-level ministerial conferences on an annual basis for the REPARIS Countries’ Ministers of Finance and other senior officials to provide the ongoing strategic validation of the Program; presenting the latest developments in financial reporting regulation; and providing the private sector, including foreign direct investors, an opportunity to provide feedback on the issues they face.

   Expected outputs include a series of videoconferences, high-level Ministerial conferences; associated technical workshops; EU level/international discussions; advice on best practices; periodic meetings of senior officials; and regular information sharing on new developments, experiences of the participants in reform implementation, and challenges ahead.

(ii) Curricula Development and Education Reform in Accounting and Auditing. Facilitate efforts in the Region to reform and upgrade accounting education systems by focusing on the common challenges faced by universities, professional accounting bodies, chambers of auditors, and regulators. There is a substantial commonality of curriculum content, qualification systems and lifelong learning requirements that can be applied throughout the Region to support the relevant stakeholder institutions. The implementation of International Accounting Education Standards, application of the education requirements of the EU Statutory Audit Directive, and identification and replication of the experiences of developed EU universities in accounting education are amongst the aims which have been set by the Accounting Education CoP. The CFRR will work with the CoP on the development of identified common approaches and solutions to the shared challenges, as well as facilitate collaboration with EU and relevant global peer institutions and bodies.

   Expected outputs include a series of regular videoconferences utilizing the World Bank’s Global Development Learning Network (GDLN) and CoP workshops. The CFRR will provide technical assistance to the CoP to facilitate the development of an e-based information and resources portal that will allow universities, professional bodies and regulators to access educational resources and tools to support their development and implementation activities. The CFRR will work to increase the capacity CoP participant institutions to engage with their EU and global peers, such as the International Federation of Accountants, the Federation of European Accountants, the International Forum of Independent Audit Regulators, and EU universities.

(iii) Moving Forward in Accounting and Auditing. Provide technical assistance to the work of the two CoPs that have been formed to address regional challenges in the implementation of the EU acquis communautaire: the Financial Reporting CoP and the Audit and Oversight CoP. The key thematic challenges on which the CFRR will provide technical support through the CoPs include addressing the financial reporting needs of Small and Medium-sized Enterprises (SMEs), defining the scope of application of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), the enforcement of financial reporting requirements, improving the quality of audits through the introduction of quality assurance systems, and the introduction of public oversight arrangements for the statutory audit function. The Region faces the challenge of providing access to updated translated versions of international standards, and shortages of highly skilled and experienced professionals to implement and enforce these. Work under this component will be coordinated with that of the Accounting Education CoP to identify and facilitate the development of sharable solutions to these needs through continuous professional education. The CFRR will also continue the regional training program on the use of IFRS by financial sector regulators and supervisors, through facilitating a thorough understanding of IFRS and their implications for prudential reporting.

Expected outputs include videoconferences and workshops for both the Financial Reporting and Audit and Oversight CoPs, and support for their work through providing technical assistance, guidance and appropriate linkages with EU and relevant global peers. Expected outputs also include the provision of training seminars in IFRS and prudential requirements for central banks and financial sector regulators in the Region, and the creation of an information e-portal that will enable the training and technical outputs developed under this program to be made available throughout the Region. Specific technical guidance that is relevant to the thematic areas addressed under this component will be developed and disseminated, such as a Guide to the accounting and auditing aspects of the acquis communautaire. The CFRR will also continue to encourage and facilitate the use of the CoPs to provide peer-learning case clinics for countries facing immediate specific challenges in financial reporting or auditing.

(iv) Implementation Support, Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E), Results Framework and Knowledge Management. Provide support for implementation of national CAPs through policy advice and supervision, and monitoring and evaluation of progress in implementation of individual CAPs.

Expected outputs include effective policy advice and timely supervision of implementation; periodic Accounting and Auditing Reports on the Observance of Standards and Codes (A&A ROSC) updates; development of performance indicators in the field of corporate financial reporting; development/documentation of best practices; and knowledge maintenance and dissemination. These activities will allow for defining the results agenda in the area of corporate financial reporting reform, for disseminating good practices, as well as for development of relevant and realistic performance indicators and benchmarks.

(v) Program Management and Trust Fund Administration. Carry out, through CFRR, (a) coordination and management of all Program activities, including the Trust Fund activities, (b) management and administration of the REPARIS Secretariat and the Trust Fund, and (c) donor coordination.

(b) Recipient-Executed Trust Fund Activities:

Implementation of Country Action Plans. Provide support to the REPARIS Countries for implementation of their respective CAPs. Implementation of the CAPs will be carried out in phases, over the medium to long-term, supported by a detailed project design for each phase. The Recipient-Executed activities will be based on a strong reliance on country ownership and capacity, on one hand, and on the transfer of the knowledge and experience acquired and exchanged in the context of regional activities with a view to facilitating the design and implementation of respective CAPs, on the other hand.

Expected outputs. Implementation of the first phase of the CAPs, with the focus on priority activities for the corporate financial reporting in preparing foundations for implementation of the subsequent phases. Specifically, expected outputs will be (i) improving the legal framework; (ii) strengthening the national accounting standard setter; (iii) establishing a public oversight system for independent auditors; (iv) improving accounting and auditing curricula; and (v) strengthening reform capacity of the Government in the area of corporate financial reporting to carry on implementation of the subsequent phases as set out in respective CAPs.

D. Categories of Expenditures

(a) For Bank-Executed activities the Contributions may be used to finance (i) Bank staff costs, (ii) consultants, (iii) temporary staff costs, extended-term consultants, (iv) field assignment benefits, (v) contractual services, (vi) media and workshop costs, (vii) travel expenses for Bank staff, short-term consultants, short-term temporary staff, extended-term consultants and extended-term temporary staff, and (viii) associated overheads.

(b) For Recipient-Executed activities the Contributions may be used to finance (i) goods, (ii) consultants’ services including audit, (iii) training, and (iv) operating costs.

The foregoing categories of expenditures may include the financing of taxes.
E. Governance

The governance structure for management of all corporate financial reporting reform programs in the ECA Region, including the REPARIS Program, is also applied to the governance and management of this Trust Fund.

(a) Strategic oversight, policy and institutional issues. The Donor Advisory Council (DAC) which comprises of representatives of development partners will provide strategic and policy guidance on institutional capacity strengthening in the field of corporate financial reporting, with reliance on specific and relevant thematic discussion papers and studies prepared by the CFRR. No representation from the REPARIS Countries is envisaged in DAC. The DAC has the final responsibility (the CFRR carries out M&E and submits a report to the DAC for its appreciation) for monitoring and evaluation of progress of the reforms and may commission an independent performance audit.

(b) REPARIS Program management and implementation. The Bank manages and administers the REPARIS Program through the CFRR. The Bank shall prepare, review and approve the annual work plan and budget of both the REPARIS Program and this Trust Fund. While the approval of annual work plan and budget of the REPARIS Program rests with the Bank, the DAC members contributing to the REPARIS Program may provide comments on the proposed work plan and budget and these may be discussed with the Bank prior to the approval of annual work plan and budget.

The CFRR decides the activities to be funded from the REPARIS MDTF in accordance with strategic guidance from DAC and the related demand from the REPARIS Countries, and taking into account recommendations of RLG and MPG and budget constraints. The CFRR reports to DAC on the progress in implementation of the REPARIS Program’s annual work plan.

In the capacity of Secretariat to the Program, the CFRR will (a) assist the REPARIS Countries in raising adequate funding to support implementation of their respective CAPs; (b) administer funds provided by development partners in support of implementation of both the regional and country specific activities under the REPARIS Program; and (c) report on progress in implementation of all REPARIS Program activities to both participating development partners and beneficiary countries.

(c) Consultations on subject matters.

(i) Regulatory Liaison Group. On the basis of periodic reports by the CFRR on the policy underpinnings for its analytical, advisory and implementation activities, the technical views of the RLG are sought on the alignment of this policy foundation with current and emerging best practice; on the coordination of relevant capacity development activities by RLG members with those of the Centre; and on the extent and sequencing of the adoption and implementation of EU and international best practice in the specific circumstances of the CFRR’s partner countries. The involvement of these organizations in the RLG is also expected to facilitate the ability of the CFRR to mobilize their specific assistance in the context of individual programs and projects.
(ii) Market Participants Group. On the basis of structured consultations and periodic reports by the CFRR on what are considered to be the main areas of financial reporting in need of reform, the practical views of the MPG are sought on the key impediments to high quality financial reporting in the CFRR’s partner countries, and on the extent of progress being achieved over time. The involvement of these entities in the MPG is also expected to facilitate the raising of private sector funding to support the activities of the CFRR, and the ability of the CFRR to mobilize their specific assistance at country level in making the case for financial reporting reform.
