Entrepreneurship

Entrepreneurs explore opportunities and create organizations to make opportunities into realities. The best entrepreneurs invent new ways to live, work and achieve. Successful entrepreneurship blends independence and collaboration, vision and action, the individual and the organization. Successful entrepreneurship can be a great way to live. This publication can help you on your journey to success.

Entrepreneurship Resource Directory

The Directory is the result of research conducted by SEED to identify:

- SEED Region university-based entrepreneurial education programs
- SEED Region entrepreneurial training activities
- World-wide university-based entrepreneurial education programs
- World-wide entrepreneurial training programs
- Other sources of entrepreneurial assistance for the SEED Region

The Directory is targeted at university staff and students, entrepreneurs and small and medium-sized enterprises. It is also useful for NGOs and international organizations providing education/training, business consulting, and support to entrepreneurs and owners of small to medium-sized businesses.
How To Use This Guide

This Directory is organized by Country. Each country section has the following information:

- SEED Donor Country Information
- Other Donors/International Institutions Information
- Education Information
- Training Information
- Association Information
- Business Development Centers
- Business Incubators
- Government Information
- Private Sector - Businesses Supporting/Mentoring Entrepreneurs

A section on world-wide, university-based entrepreneurial education and training programs follows, beginning on page 51.

Note: In compiling this directory, we have tried to ensure that complete and adequate information is provided, and information was current at the time of printing. However, some institutions may have been left out by mistake. If you are aware of changes or corrections to the information provided (contact names, numbers, e-mails, etc.) or of additional organizations that should be included, please let us know at: seedinfo@ifc.org (please type "Entrepreneurship Directory" in the subject field).

In addition, SEED cannot guarantee or recommend the institutions listed in this guide, and cannot be held responsible for the services they may provide.

International Educational Institutions

The following international universities and colleges have established entrepreneurial education programs, curricula and facilities. In many cases their facilities include centers for entrepreneurship, business incubators and alliances with business centers/clusters. Many of these institutions have also expressed willingness to partner with universities in the SEED Region to assist in the advancement of entrepreneurial curricula and effective teaching methodology.
