Mandatory Provisions for Procurement under Bank-Friendly Contracts

Subject to National Procurement Procedures

The procedures to be followed for National Open Competitive Bidding shall be those set forth in the Public Procurement Law of the Borrower (Law No. 4725) as amended from time to time, with the latest amendment dated March 26, 2018 (the “Law”) understanding anything to the contrary in the Borrower’s Law of Public Procurement Contracts (Law No. 4715), as amended from time to time, with the latest amendment dated April 23, 2018, and subject to the following provisions.

A. Eligibility

The eligibility of bidders shall be as defined under Article 11.6.31 of the World Bank Procurement Regulations for IFI Borrowers. Accordingly, no bidder or potential bidder shall be declared ineligible to contracts financed by the Bank for reasons other than those provided in section 11.5 of the Procurement Regulations.

Bidding shall not be restricted to domestic bidders. No restrictions in respect of eligibility to participate in bidding for contracts shall be placed on the basis of nationality of the bidder and/or the origin of goods or services other than those set forth in paragraph 3.32 of the Procurement Regulations. No restriction of any kind shall be applied to foreign bidders who wish to submit a bid.

Bidding shall not be restricted to pre-registered firms, and foreign bidders shall not be required to be registered with local authorities as a prerequisite for submitting bids.

Participation shall be allowed from joint ventures on the condition that each joint venture partner will be jointly and severally liable under the contract. Procuring entities shall use bidding documents procured by the Bank, and included in the Project Operational Manual.

B. Fraud and Corruption

The request for tender/proposal shall provide that bidders/proposers submitting bids/proposals present a signed acceptance of the time of bidding, or in any other conditions required by the Bank.

The request for tender/proposal shall provide that bidders/proposers submitting bids/proposals present a signed acceptance of the time of bidding, or in any other conditions required by the Bank and that any non-compliance with the Bank’s anti-corruption guidelines, including without limitation the Bank’s right to terminate and the Bank’s inspection and audit rights.

C. Award

The Bank may recognize, if requested by the Borrower, exclusions from participation as a result of default, financial penalization, and corruption and further provide that the Bank confirms that the particular procurement procedure afford all the appropriate results and the award decision is final.
