Re: Republic of Colombia: SPF Trust Fund Grant for Protection of Land and Patrimony of Internally Displaced Persons Project Phase III
Amended and Restated Grant Agreement (Grant No. TF094596)

In response to the request made by the Republic of Colombia ("Beneficiary"), I am pleased to inform you that the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development ("World Bank"), acting as administrator of grant funds provided by the State and Peace-Building Fund ("Donor"), proposes to extend to the International Organization for Migrations ("Recipient") for the benefit of the Beneficiary, hereby represented by the Agencia Presidencial de Cooperación Internacional de Colombia ("ACP"), a grant in an amount not to exceed six million United States Dollars (U.S.$6,000,000) ("Grant") on the terms and conditions set forth in this letter agreement ("Agreement"), including the attached Annex, to assist in financing of the project described in the Annex ("Project") to be carried out by the Unidad Administrativa Gestión de Restitución de Tierras Despojadas ("PIE") in accordance to the provisions of this Agreement.

This Grant is funded out of the abovementioned trust fund for which the World Bank receives periodic contributions from the Donor. In accordance with Section 3.02 of the Standard Conditions (as defined in the Annex to this Agreement), the World Bank’s payment obligations in connection with this Agreement are limited to the amount of funds made available to it by the Donor under the abovementioned trust fund, and the Recipient’s right to withdraw the Grant proceeds is subject to the availability of such funds.
The Recipient, the Beneficiary and the PIE represent, by confirming their agreement below, that they are authorized to enter into this Agreement and to carry out the Project in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth or referred to in this Agreement.

Please confirm the Recipient, the Beneficiary and the PIE's agreement to the foregoing by having an authorized official of the Recipient, the Beneficiary and the PIE sign and date the enclosed copy of this Agreement, and returning it to the World Bank. Upon receipt by the World Bank of this countersigned copy, this Agreement shall become effective as of the date specified by the World Bank in accordance with Article V of the Annex to this Agreement; however, the offer of this Agreement shall be deemed withdrawn if the World Bank has not received the countersigned copy of this Agreement within 90 days after the date of signature of this Agreement by the World Bank, unless the World Bank shall have established a later date for such purpose.

Very truly yours,

INTERNATIONAL BANK FOR RECONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT

(2) “Guidelines on Preventing and Combating Fraud and Corruption in Projects Financed by IBRD Loans and IDA Credits and Grants”, dated October 15, 2006 and revised in January 2011.

1.01. Standard Conditions. The Standard Conditions for Grants Made by the World Bank out of Various Funds dated February 15, 2012 ("Standard Conditions") constitute an integral part of this Agreement.

1.02. Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, the capitalized terms used in this Agreement have the meanings ascribed to them in the Standard Conditions or in this Agreement.

(a) "Differential Treatment for Protecting Rights to Territory of Ethnic Groups Plans" means the plan dated December 2, 2008 and the plan dated March 13, 2013 (also referred as Política Pública para la Protección y Restitución de los Derechos Territoriales de los Grupos Étnicos: Antecedentes, Acciones y Perspectivas en el Escenario de los Decretos con Fuerza de Ley para Grupos Étnicos No. 4333 and 4635 of 2011), published in a manner satisfactory to the World Bank, for purposes of implementing, inter alia, special land protective measures for indigenous peoples and afro-Colombians (ethnic route); as said plans may be updated and/or amended from time to time with the agreement of the World Bank.

(b) "Entities" means the governmental institutions and departmental and municipal authorities responsible for the application of the protective measures and land restitution in the territory of the Beneficiary, selected in a manner acceptable to the World Bank to participate in Project activities pursuant the provisions of the Operational Manual.

(c) "IDPs" means internally displaced persons.

(d) "Operational Manual" means the manual dated December 2012, and referred to in Section 2.03 (d) of this Agreement, as said manual may be updated from time to time with the agreement of the World Bank.

(e) "PIE" means Unidad Administrativa Especial de Gestion de Restitucion de Tierras Despojadas the Beneficiary’s Administrative Unit on Land Restitution, established as an administrative autonomous unit with separate legal personality ascribed to the Ministerio de Agricultura y Desarrollo Rural, pursuant to the Victims and Land Restitution Law and the Beneficiary’s Decree No. 4801 of December 20, 2011.

(f) "SEPA" means Sistema de Ejecucion de Planes de Adquisiciones, the World Bank’s publicly accessible Procurement Plans Execution System.

(g) "Steering Committee" means the steering committee refer to in Section 2.03 (a) of this Agreement, established under Article 107 of the Victims and Land Restitution Law, with the composition set out therein.

(h) "Subsidiary Agreement" means the agreement referred to in Section 2.03 (b) of this Agreement, as said Subsidiary Agreement may be amended from time to time with the agreement of the World Bank.

Article II
Project Execution

2.01. Project Objectives and Description. The objective of the Project is to diminish the risk of impoverishment of the displaced population and contribute to the peace-building process in the territory of the Beneficiary by: (i) promoting application of measures for protection of patrimonial assets; (ii) providing land titles for those IDPs whose rights have been protected; and (iii) proposing public policy initiatives for restitution of properties to IDPs. The Project consists of the following Parts:

Part 1: Protecting Patrimonial Assets of Population at Risk of Displacement or Already Displaced

Diminish the risk of impoverishment of IDPs and persons at risk of displacement through:

(a) application of the individual and collective protective measures, which are legal and technical administrative procedures defined by the Beneficiary’s law to protect the land rights and patrimonial assets of internally displaced persons and victims of violence, in 300 municipalities of the Beneficiary most affected by forced displacement;
(b) strengthening the institutional capacities of the Entities to apply the protective measures according to the new legislation through the use of dissemination, training, technical assistance and logistical support; and
(c) following up on the application of protective measures to ensure that all the institutions involved comply with the functions established in the legislation in accordance with the mandate of the Beneficiary’s constitutional court.

Part 2: Supporting Land Titling to IDPs Who Have Protected Their Rights to Land

Promote the conditions to eliminate one of the factors that facilitate land dispossession through:

(a) designing special procedures and regulatory proposals for land titling of IDPs following the mandate of the Beneficiary’s constitutional court;
(b) estimating costs for land titling of individual properties and collective territories (of Indigenous Peoples and Afro Colombians) and identify sources of funding for this activity; and
(c) supporting to the land titling programs in the regions of the Beneficiary where the project will be implemented.

Part 3: Supporting Reparation and Restitution of Land and Assets to IDPs

Formalization of the process for the restitution of land and territory to the victims of violence (as defined in the Victims and Land Restitution Law), through:

(a) the strengthening of the PIE’s knowledge management systems, including, inter alia: the identification of good practices and lessons learned, and the dissemination of said practices and lesson learned to relevant stakeholders;
(b) the strengthening of the Beneficiary’s information management system and interconnectivity of the said information management administration system with the national land information network;

-8-
(c) the strengthening of the PIE’s strategies for violence prevention and security for the implementation of restitution activities;
(d) the carrying out of training, capacity building and strategic activities, including, inter alia: (i) the identification and transfer to the PIE of existing tools, methodologies and procedures for the carrying out of restitution activities; and (ii) the provision of training and guidance to officials at the national and territorial levels involved in the carrying out of restitution activities;
(e) the provision of technical support for the development and testing of institutional plans for the Entities participating in the carrying out of restitution activities, including areas such as, inter alia: security, communications, training, and quality and risk management, to ensure sufficient organizational capacity at the administrative and judicial stages of the restitution process;
(f) the design and implementation of a restitution observatory to serve as a tool for the monitoring of the Beneficiary’s land policy; and
(g) the strengthening of the capacity of the PIE for the provision of integrated reparation services to the victims during the carrying out of restitution activities.

Part 4: Assisting and Supporting Communities to Safeguard Their Rights to Land and Territories

Provide support to the communities to safeguard their rights to land and territory through:

(a) the design and implementation of a communications strategy for the PIE, aimed at informing and ensuring the participation of communities and organizations in the process of restitution of land rights under the Victims and Restitution Law;
(b) the dissemination of materials and differential approaches (such as gender, age and ethnicity) to inform and train victims and community stakeholders of the mechanisms available to safeguard their rights to land and collective territories; and
(c) the provision of training to local leaders, representatives and community authorities to inform them on the different paths to land restitution.

Part 5: Developing Protective Complementary Measures

Contribute to the formulation of public policies for land rights and assets protection through:

(a) conducting an analysis of legal zones in the Beneficiary’s territory with restriction for land titling, including recommendations for public policies;
(b) conducting an analysis of changes in land tenure associated with the processes of abandonment and dispossession and their socioeconomic impact;
(c) identifying IDPs with financial debts in arrears with banks, and drafting public policy proposals to alleviate these debts;
(d) conducting an analysis of data on land abandoned or disposed extracted from the official register of IDPs to protect the rights of these persons and provide evidence to the justice and peace unit of the prosecutor general’s office; and
(e) supporting the Beneficiary’s Ministry of Environment, Housing and Territorial Planning to create a task force to analyse the current policies and practices on land acquisition in development projects.

Part 6: Dissemination, Monitoring and Evaluation

Enhance the impact of the Project and influence public policies through:

(a) publication and dissemination of the Project’s results;
(b) preparation of guidelines and didactic material on tools and methodologies about protective measures;
(c) organization of an international seminar on deprivation of land in conflict-affected countries and strategies for restitution and reparation;
(d) monitoring and evaluating the Project’s results; and
(e) provision of support to the PIE in preparing progress reports to the constitutional court.

2.02. Project Execution Generally. The Recipient and the PIE declare their commitment to the objectives of the Project. To this end, the Recipient and the PIE shall carry out the Project in accordance with the provisions of: (a) Article II of the Standard Conditions; (b) the “Guidelines on Preventing and Combating Fraud and Corruption in Projects Financed by IBRD Loans and IDA Credits and Grants”, dated October 15, 2006 and revised in January 2011 (“Anti-Corruption Guidelines”); (c) this Article II; (d) the Subsidiary Agreement; (e) the Operational Manual; and (f) the Differential Treatment for Protecting Rights to Territory of Ethnic Groups Plans.

2.03. Institutional and Other Arrangements. (a) The Recipient and the PIE shall ensure, throughout the implementation of the Project that the Steering Committee be responsible for: (i) providing general guidance for the strategic decisions of the Project; (ii) facilitating inter-institutional coordination of entities responsible for the protection of abandoned land; and (iii) following-up the implementation of the Project.

(b) The Recipient shall enter into, and thereafter maintain throughout the implementation of the Project, an agreement with the PIE (“Subsidiary Agreement”), in terms and conditions acceptable to the World Bank, to execute the Project as set forth in paragraph 2.02 above. Except as the World Bank may otherwise agree, the Recipient and the PIE shall not assign, amend, terminate, abrogate, repeal, waive or fail to enforce this Agreement and the Subsidiary Agreement or any provision thereof. In case of any conflict between the terms of the Subsidiary Agreement and those of this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall prevail.

(c) The PIE, throughout the implementation of the Project, shall maintain key staff for the implementation of the Project in number and with experience and qualifications acceptable to the World Bank.

(d) The Recipient and the PIE shall carry out the Project, in accordance with the provisions of a manual satisfactory to the World Bank (the Operational Manual), which shall include, inter alia: (i) the detailed description of Project implementation activities and their sequencing in relation thereto; (ii) the structure, functions and responsibilities of the PIE; (iii) the Project’s administrative, accounting, auditing, reporting, financial, and disbursement procedures; (iv) terms, conditions and roles of the Steering Committee and the Entities participating in the Project; (v) the Differential Treatment for Protecting Rights to Territory of Ethnic Groups Plans; (vi) the plan for monitoring, evaluating and supervising the Project; and (vii) the performance indicators for the Project.

(e) The Recipient and the PIE to ensure, that no physical or economic involuntary resettlement (as interpreted in accordance with World Bank’s Operational Policy 4.12) shall take place as a consequence of Project implementation.

2.04. Project Monitoring, Reporting and Evaluation. (a) The PIE shall monitor and evaluate the progress of the Project and prepare Project Reports and the Recipient’s Completion Report in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.06 of the Standard Conditions and on the basis of acceptable to the World Bank. Each Project Report shall cover the period of three (3) months, and shall be furnished to the World Bank not later than forty-five (45) days after the end of the period covered by such report.
(b) The PIE shall prepare the Completion Report in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.06 of the Standard Conditions. The Completion Report shall be furnished to the World Bank not later than six months after the Closing Date. In order to assist the PIE in preparing the Completion Report, the PIE shall employ consultants in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.06 of this Agreement.

2.05. Financial Management. (a) The Recipient shall ensure that a financial management system is maintained in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.07 of the Standard Conditions.

(b) The Recipient shall ensure that interim unaudited financial reports for the Project are prepared and furnished to the World Bank not later than forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar semester, covering the semester, in form and substance satisfactory to the World Bank.

(c) The Recipient shall have its Financial Statements for the Project audited in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.07 (b) of the Standard Conditions. Each such audit of the Financial Statements shall cover the period of one fiscal year of the Recipient, commencing with the fiscal year in which withdrawals from the Grant Account were made. The audited Financial Statements for such period shall be furnished to the World Bank not later than six (6) months after the end of such period.

2.06. Procurement

(a) General. All goods, non-consulting services and consultants’ services required for the Project and to be financed out of the proceeds of the Grant shall be procured in accordance with the requirements set forth or referred to in:

(i) Section I of the “Guidelines: Procurement of Goods, Works and Non-consulting Services under IBRD Loans and IDA Credits and Grants by World Bank Borrowers” dated January 2011 (“Procurement Guidelines”), in the case of goods, and non-consulting services;

(ii) Sections I and IV of the “Guidelines: Selection and Employment of Consultants under IBRD Loans and IDA Credits and Grants by World Bank Borrowers” dated January 2011 (“Consultant Guidelines”) in the case of consultants’ services; and

(iii) the provisions of this Section, as the same shall be elaborated in the procurement plan prepared and updated from time to time by the Recipient for the Project in accordance with paragraph 1.18 of the Procurement Guidelines and paragraph 1.25 of the Consultant Guidelines (“Procurement Plan”).

(b) Definitions. The capitalized terms used in the following paragraphs of this Section to describe particular procurement methods or methods of review by the World Bank of particular contracts, refer to the corresponding method described in Sections II and III of the Procurement Guidelines, or Sections II, III, IV and V of the Consultant Guidelines, as the case may be.

(c) Particular Methods of Procurement of Goods and Non-consulting Services

(i) Except as otherwise provided in sub-paragraph (ii) below, goods, and non-consulting services shall be procured under contracts awarded on the basis of National Competitive Bidding, subject to the following additional procedures:
(A) Before issuing any invitation to Recipient shall prepare and furnish or cause to be prepared and furnished to the World Bank for approval, appropriate model bidding documents. Once approved by the World Bank, the Recipient shall use, or cause to be used, said model bidding documents, as approved for bidding under the Project. Any change or departure from the model approved shall require the World Bank’s prior approval.

(B) All bidders, irrespective of whether they are foreigners or Colombians, will be treated equally and, particularly, no preference will be granted to any bidder or group of bidders for bid evaluation purposes. Bidders shall be allowed to submit their bids by hand or through the post office or private mailing services. There shall not be any requirement for any bidder to show evidence of the bidder’s registration in any public registry, chamber of commerce or similar entity, whether in Colombia or elsewhere, or to appoint a representative domiciled in Colombia, unless and until such bidder is awarded the corresponding contract.

(C) Bids shall be opened in a public meeting to which bidders and their representatives shall be allowed to attend if they so wish. Date, time and place for the opening meeting shall be set forth in the bidding documents. Bid opening shall coincide with, or take place promptly after, the final date and time of the period for bid submission stipulated in the bidding documents.

(D) Each bid shall be evaluated and the corresponding contract awarded to the responsive bidder who meets appropriate technical and financial standards of capability and whose bid has been determined to be the lowest evaluated bid. Such determination shall be made exclusively on the basis of the specifications, conditions and evaluation criteria stipulated in the bidding documents. If any factor additional to the amount or amounts of each bid is to be considered in bid evaluation, such factor or factors and the quantified manner in which they will be applied for purposes of determining the lowest evaluated bid shall be precisely stipulated in the bidding documents. For purposes of bid evaluation and comparison, the only bid amount or amounts to be used as a factor shall be the bid amount or amounts as quoted in the corresponding bid, including correction of arithmetic errors.

(E) The provisions of paragraph 2.47 of the Procurement Guidelines shall fully apply and, more specifically, bids shall not be disclosed to persons other than the persons officially charged with the task of comparing and/or evaluating the bids while they are performing their official duties, without the corresponding bidder's written authorization. Moreover, bidders shall not be required to provide such authorization as a condition to be entitled to bid. This confidentiality requirement shall apply until the award of contract is notified to the successful bidder. Thereafter, confidentiality of the bids shall be limited to those bid portions for which confidentiality has been specifically requested by the bidder in question.

(ii) The following methods, other than National Competitive Bidding, may be used for procurement of goods, and non-consulting services for those contracts which are specified in the Procurement Plan: (A) Shopping; and (B) Direct Contracting.
(d) Particular Methods of Procurement of Consultants’ Services

(i) Except as otherwise provided in item (ii) below, consultants’ services shall be procured under contracts awarded on the basis of Quality- and Cost-based Selection.

(ii) The following methods, other than Quality- and Cost-based Selection, may be used for the procurement of consultants’ services for those assignments which are specified in the Procurement Plan: (A) Quality-based Selection; (B) Selection under a Fixed Budget; (C) Least Cost Selection; (D) Selection based on Consultants’ Qualifications (for contracts estimated to cost below $200,000 equivalent); (E) Single-source Selection, subject to the World Bank’s prior written consent; and (F) Procedures for the Selection of Individual Consultants.

(e) Review by the World Bank of Procurement Decisions. The Procurement Plan shall set forth those contracts which shall be subject to the World Bank’s Prior Review. All other contracts shall be subject to Post Review by the World Bank.

(f) Special Provisions. The PIE shall: (i) supply SEPA with the information contained in the initial Procurement Plan within forty-five (45) days after the Effective Date; and (ii) update the Procurement Plan at least once a year, or as needed through the duration of the Project, to reflect the actual Project implementation needs and progress and supply SEPA with the information contained in the updated Procurement Plan immediately thereafter.

Article III

Withdrawal of Grant Proceeds

3.01. Eligible Expenditures. (a) The Recipient may withdraw the proceeds of the Grant in accordance with the provisions of: (i) Article III of the Standard Conditions; (ii) this Section; and (iii) such additional instructions as the World Bank may specify by notice to the Recipient (including the “World Bank Disbursement Guidelines for Projects” dated May 2006, as revised from time to time by the World Bank and as made applicable to this Agreement pursuant to such instructions), to finance Eligible Expenditures as set forth in the following table. (b) For the purposes of this paragraph, the term:

(i) “Consultants’ services” means consultants fees of personnel hired to implement the activities of the Project.

(ii) “Goods” means reasonable expenditures incurred by the PIE as approved by the World Bank, to finance computers, software, publications and equipment such as scanners, GPSs, communication equipment, digital cameras, video cameras, and photocopiers.

(iii) “Training and Workshops” means training activities organized and carried out in the territory of the Beneficiary, including in relation thereto, the acquisition, preparation, publication supply and dissemination of training materials, the rental of training facilities, payment of course fees for trainees, inland and air transportation costs, per diem and subsistence expenses of trainers and trainees.

(iv) “Operating costs” means the incremental expenses incurred on account of Project implementation, including, inter alia: overhead costs, office equipment and supplies, inland and air transportation costs, utilities, rentals of training facilities and equipment, travelling, and per diem.

(v) “Non-consulting services” means the cost of titling services related to the provision of land titles to IDPs or people at risk of displacement, such as fees related to granting of deeds and other related documents.

3.02. Withdrawal Conditions. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3.01 of this Agreement, no withdrawal shall be made for payments made prior to the date of countersignature of this Agreement by the Recipient, the Beneficiary and the PIE.

3.03. Withdrawal Period. The Closing Date referred to in Section 3.06 (c) of the Standard Conditions is March 31, 2014.
Article IV
Additional Remedies

4.01. Additional Events of Suspension. The Additional Events of Suspension referred to in Section 4.02 (k) of the Standard Conditions consist of the following:

   (a) The Recipient has taken or permitted to be taken any action which would prevent or interfere with its performance or the performance by PIE of their obligations under the Subsidiary Agreement.

   (b) The Recipient and/or the PIE have failed to perform any obligation under the Subsidiary Agreement.

   (c) As a result of events which have occurred after the date of this Agreement, an extraordinary situation has arisen which makes it improbable that the PIE or the Recipient will be able to perform their respective obligations under the Subsidiary Agreement.

   (d) Any law and/or decree pursuant to which the PIE has been established and is operating has been amended, suspended, abrogated, repealed or waived so as to affect materially and adversely the ability of the PIE or the Recipient to perform any of their respective obligations under the Subsidiary Agreement.

   (e) The Victims and Land Restitution Law has been amended, suspended, abrogated, repealed or waived so as to affect materially and adversely, in the opinion of the World Bank, any of the Recipient and PIE's obligations under this Agreement, or set forth in the Operational Manual and/or the Subsidiary Agreement.

Article V
Effectiveness

5.01. Effectiveness Conditions. This Agreement shall not become effective until evidence, acceptable to the World Bank, that the Subsidiary Agreement referred to in Section 2.03 (b) of this Agreement has been entered into by the parties thereto.

5.02 Effective Date. Except as the Recipient and the World Bank shall otherwise agree, this Agreement shall enter into effect on the date upon which the World Bank dispatches to the Recipient notice of its acceptance of the evidence required pursuant to Section 5.01 of this Agreement ("Effective Date"). If, before the Effective Date, any event has occurred which would have entitled the World Bank to suspend the right of the Recipient to make withdrawals from the Grant Account if this Agreement had been effective, the World Bank may postpone the dispatch of the notice referred to in this Section until such event (or events) has (or have) ceased to exist.

Article VI
