Implementation Status Overview
Grant Agreement became effective on September 3, 2013. Project implementation unit (PIU) has been established within Investment Department of the Ministry of Economy (MoE) of Kyrgyz Republic. A few staff of this department will responsible for project implementation in accordance with WB’s fiduciary requirements. The full set of ToRs for international and local consultants as well as technical specifications for laptops has been developed and is pending no objection. A project designated account has been opened in a commercial bank and MoE’s officials with rights to sign withdrawal applications and other related documents have been appointed. Tenders to hire consultants started at the beginning of the year, and are currently ongoing.
