Implementation Status Overview
The Solomon Islands Improving Services for Victims of Gender-Based and Domestic Violence became effective on April 5, 2013 and closes on April 5, 2016. As of May 2014, the project has already disbursed 53.49 percent of a total budget of US$130,000.00.

Component 1 of the project involved a diagnostic study on the gaps and capacity constraints in institutions and services aimed to protect and support women who are victims of, or vulnerable to GBV or DV. This included a SAFENET National Workshop in November 2013.

A report of the assessment and recommendations, and a three year national action plan (2014 – 2016) for addressing GBV/VAW in the country was produced. The report identifies three Program Areas of Focus, 16 recommendations and 49 activities for implementation, with the objective of improving services for victims of GBV and DV. It also identifies a prioritized and targeted Pilot Sub-Project under Component Two of the ‘Improving Services for Victims of Gender Based Violence’ project to be delivered by July 2014.

Key Decisions Regarding Implementation

It is proposed that Component 2 of the project consist of two activities. The first activity involves technical assistance through an international consultant to work with service providers to strengthen the operational systems for SAFENET, and deliver a two days combined training and pilot of the system as part of a larger five day SAFENET Orientation Workshop. A locally based consultant will also be engaged to deliver three days of standardized crisis counseling training and burn out prevention skills to SAFENET members as part of this workshop.

The second activity is the scoping, design, purchase and implementation of appropriate database solution for SAFENET. The upper limit for purchase of goods, including the database solution, under this project is 20 percent of the total grant amount. Some of the grant funds have been used to purchase a laptop for use by the implementing ministry, MWYCFA to support project activities and reporting requirements. Scoping of the database solution will need to take into account this financial constraint.
