Re: JSDF Grant No. TF0A4858
Burundi Maternal Child Nutrition Enhancement Project
Letter Agreement

Dear Ms. Mbengue:

In response to the request for financial assistance made on behalf of World Vision Burundi ("Recipient"), I am pleased to inform you that the International Development Association ("World Bank"), acting as administrator of grant funds provided by Japan ("Donor") under the Japan Social Development Fund, proposes to extend to the Recipient for the benefit of the Republic of Burundi ("Member Country"), a grant in an amount not to exceed two million seven hundred twenty nine thousand four hundred one United States Dollars (USD 2,729,401) ("Grant") on the terms and conditions set forth or referred to in this letter agreement ("Agreement"), which includes the attached Annex, to assist in the financing of the project described in the Annex ("Project").

This Grant is funded out of the abovementioned trust fund for which the World Bank receives periodic contributions from the Donor. In accordance with Section 3.02 of the Standard Conditions (as defined in the Annex to this Agreement), the World Bank’s payment obligations in connection with this Agreement are limited to the amount of funds made available to it by the Donor under the abovementioned trust fund, and the Recipient’s right to withdraw the Grant proceeds is subject to the availability of such funds.

The Recipient represents, by confirming its agreement below, that it is authorized to enter into this Agreement and to carry out the Project in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth or referred to in this Agreement.

Please confirm the Recipient’s agreement to the foregoing by having an authorized official of the Recipient sign and date the enclosed copy of this Agreement, and returning it to the World Bank. Upon receipt by the World Bank of this countersigned copy, this Agreement shall become effective as of the date of the notice of effectiveness from the World Bank to the Recipient, confirming in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.02 of the Annex to this Agreement that the World Bank has accepted the supporting document provided by the Recipient to the World Bank to establish that the condition of effectiveness listed in Section 5.01 of the Annex to this Agreement has been satisfied.

Very truly yours,

INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION

   (c) Organization of family group meetings for group formation, discussions and activities to promote improved health and nutrition practices.

   (d) Organization of growth monitoring and promotion sessions, led by trained community health workers, for all children form 0-23 months and their caregivers.

   (e) Organization of positive deviance health volunteers' sessions and household's follow-up visits to promote positive deviant nutrition practices to rehabilitate malnourished children.

2. Community-based activities

   (a) Carrying out of a situation analysis before implementation of any community-based nutrition activity to identify opportunities and barriers related to community mobilization, gender, issues specific to nutrition and health in women and children from 0-23 months.

   (b) Development of training materials and operational manuals.

   (c) Carrying out of nutritional training for local community-based organizations, health personnel and agriculture personnel to support the community-based service delivery.

   (d) Use of information communication technology to support the positive deviance health volunteers and community health workers in delivering nutrition messages and following-up with at risk households.

   (e) Provision of support to joint monitoring, supervision and review meetings between the Member Country's relevant line ministries involved in Project implementation.
Part 2. Increase Production of Micronutrient-rich Foods

Provision of technical assistance to increase year-round production and consumption of micronutrient-rich foods, including high-iron beans through:

1. Community-based nutrition activities
   (a) Carrying out of education sessions to generate demand for micronutrient-rich crops.
   (b) Carrying out of on-farm demonstrations of agronomic best practices for year-round production of micronutrient-rich foods, including: (i) supporting the development of kitchen gardens; (ii) improving crop management; (iii) supporting small scale irrigation; (iv) improving food preservation techniques; and (v) enhancing the value chain for bio-fortified crops.
   (c) Establishment of community seed banks to promote multiplication, storage and sale of improved bio-fortified seeds.
   (d) Establishment of village savings and loans associations to increase family group members’ capacity to purchase tools and fertilizers for high-iron beans and kitchen gardens.

2. Community-based activities
   (a) Carrying out a situation analysis before implementation of the above-referred activities to identify climate-appropriate micronutrient-rich local crops and context-specific agriculture best practices.
   (b) Carrying out of refresher training for service providers on integrated agriculture-nutrition activities.
   (c) Provision of job aid kits for agriculture extensionists.
   (d) Provision of family input packages for family group leaders.
   (e) Orientation of the Member Country’s ministries in charge of agriculture and health, and other government bodies, private sectors and key nutrition partners to bio-fortification and seed systems.

Part 3. Project Management and Administration, Monitoring and Evaluation, and Knowledge Dissemination

Carrying out a program of activities to support Project monitoring and evaluation, coordination and policy advocacy, and management, including:

1. Project management and administration

Provision of support to Project management and administration, including: (i) salary payment of three staff comprising of a full-time agriculture and nutrition technical advisor, a full-time finance/administration staff and a part-time procurement officer; (ii) hiring of consultants for provincial coordination, external audits and Project reports; (iii) operating costs related to Project implementation; (iv) acquisition of office equipment, office supplies and IT equipment.
2. Monitoring and Evaluation

Provision of support to Project monitoring and evaluation, including: (i) a participatory monitoring strategy to engage beneficiaries, including household with children aged 6-23, in monitoring program inputs and use, and continuous quality improvement of Project implementation; (ii) an evaluation framework using baseline and end-line surveys; (iii) hiring of consultants, including a monitoring and evaluation officer, an international expert to design the baseline and end-line evaluations, a firm to collect survey data and provide initial reports at baseline and end-line, and an international expert to provide a final evaluation of the Project and lessons learned.

3. Knowledge Dissemination and Coordination

Provision of support for the preparation of an annual Project workshop, at the provincial and national levels, for review and dissemination of lessons learned.

2.02. Project Execution Generally. The Recipient declares its commitment to the objectives of the Project. To this end, the Recipient shall carry out the Project in collaboration with the Member Country's MSPLS and MINAGRIE in accordance with the provisions of: (a) Article II of the Standard Conditions; (b) the “Guidelines on Preventing and Combating Fraud and Corruption in Projects Financed by IBRD Loans and IDA Credits and Grants”, dated October 15, 2006 and revised in January 2011 and as of July 1, 2016 (“Anti-Corruption Guidelines”); and (c) this Article II.

2.03. Institutional and Other Arrangements. Without limitation upon the provisions of Section 2.02 above:

Project Implementation Manual

(a) The Recipient shall prepare, in accordance with terms of reference acceptable to the World Bank, a project implementation manual, containing detailed arrangements and procedures for: (i) institutional coordination and day-to-day execution of the Project; (ii) monitoring, evaluation, reporting and communication; (iii) the detailed procedures for coordination and collaboration among different actors involved in the carrying out of the Project; (iv) administration, financial management and accounting; and (v) such other administrative, financial, technical and organizational arrangements and procedures as shall be required for purposes of implementation of the Project.

(b) The Recipient shall afford the World Bank a reasonable opportunity to review such manual, and shall thereafter adopt said manual as shall have been approved by the World Bank (“Project Implementation Manual” or “PIM”).

(c) The Recipient shall carry out the Project in accordance with the Project Implementation Manual and shall not amend, abrogate, waive or permit to be amended, abrogated or waived, the aforementioned manual, or any provision thereof, without the prior written consent of the World Bank.
Implementation at National Level

(d) The Recipient shall, throughout Project implementation, maintain the National Steering Committee to be established with the Member Country’s relevant ministries, not later than six (6) months after the Project’s Effective Date, with mandate, composition and resources satisfactory to the World Bank to ensure coordination of Project activities and buy-in from all stakeholders. To this end, the National Steering Committee shall be chaired by the deputy chief of cabinet of the Second Vice President’s Office and shall meet semi-annually.

(e) Without limitation upon paragraph (d) immediately above, the National Steering Committee shall be the primary link between the Project and national level policy and planning, providing general oversight and critical review of Project activities while feeding evidence, learning and result into national level planning and action.

Implementation at Provincial Level

(f) The Recipient shall maintain, throughout Project implementation, the Provincial Steering Committee to be established, not later than six (6) months after the Project’s Effective Date, with mandate, composition and resources satisfactory to the World Bank to ensure coordination of the Project activities and buy-in from all stakeholders at the provincial level and below.

Project Management

(g) To facilitate the carrying out of the Project, the Recipient shall maintain, throughout Project implementation, a project manager, with experience and qualifications satisfactory to the World Bank, to provide overall technical and managerial guidance to the Project implementation and to be also responsible for the preparation of the Project annual work plan and budget, monitoring and reporting framework and decisions for the Project resources as per the approved Project work plan. To this end, the Project manager shall engage with stakeholders at national and provincial levels and shall directly supervise the provincial Project coordinators, the food security and village savings and loan associations officers, and the senior accountant.

(h) The Recipient shall maintain, throughout Project implementation, the provincial Project coordinators, in adequate numbers, and with experience and qualifications satisfactory to the World Bank, to be responsible for day-to-day implementation of the overall Project in the province, including ensuring, inter alia, Project’s technical quality, coordination with technical consultants and stakeholders at district and provincial levels.

(i) The Recipient shall maintain, throughout Project implementation, the food security and village savings and loans association officers, in adequate numbers, and with experience and qualifications satisfactory to the World Bank, to be responsible for: (i) carrying out training for farmers on agriculture curriculum; (ii) support to the communal Project officers; and (iii) procurement of supplies, fertilizers, planting materials and seeds to be used for the Project.

(j) The Recipient shall maintain, throughout Project implementation, the communal Project officers, in adequate numbers, and with experience and qualifications satisfactory to the World Bank, to be responsible for: (i) implementing capacity building activities for community-based service providers and local community-based organizations; (ii) coordinating with all involved community-based structures to ensure adequate technical support and supervision for the implementation of all nutrition and agriculture activities; (iii) organizing Project review, reflection and learning forums at communal level; and (iv) generating and maintaining monthly Project reports to the provincial Project coordinators.

Training

(k) The Recipient shall, prior to conducting any training or workshop under the Project, furnish to the World Bank for its review, the following information relating to such training or workshop: (i) the objective and content of the training or workshop envisaged; (ii) the selection method of institutions or individuals conducting such training or workshop, and said institutions if already known; (iii) the expected duration and an estimate of the cost of said training or workshop; and (iv) the personnel selected to attend the training and/or the workshop.

Annual Work Plan and Budget

(l) The Recipient shall prepare, in accordance with terms of reference acceptable to the World Bank, and furnish to the World Bank on an annual basis during the implementation of the Project, a work plan of activities proposed for inclusion in the Project for the next calendar year, together with a budget for such activities and a timetable for their implementation.

(m) The Recipient shall afford the World Bank a reasonable opportunity to exchange views with the Recipient on such proposed work plan and budget; and, thereafter, carry out such work plan during the period covered by said plan, according to such budget, both as shall have been approved by the World Bank ("Annual Work Plan and Budget").

(n) Only such activities as shall have been included in the Annual Work Plan and Budget shall be eligible for inclusion in the Project and for financing out of the proceeds of the Grant.

2.04. Donor Visibility and Visit. (a) The Recipient shall take or cause to be taken all such measures as the World Bank may reasonably request to identify publicly the Donor’s support for the Project.

(b) For the purposes of Section 2.09 of the Standard Conditions, the Recipient shall, upon the World Bank’s request, take all measures required on its part to enable the representatives of the Donor to visit any part of the Member Country’s territory for purposes related to the Project.

2.05. Project Monitoring, Reporting and Evaluation. (a) The Recipient shall monitor and evaluate the progress of the Project and prepare Project Reports in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.06 of the Standard Conditions and on the basis of indicators acceptable to the World Bank. Each Project Report shall cover the period of one calendar semester, and shall be furnished to the World Bank not later than forty-five (45) days after the end of the period covered by such report.

(b) The Recipient shall prepare the Completion Report in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.06 of the Standard Conditions. The Completion Report shall be furnished to the World Bank not later than six months after the Closing Date.

2.06. Financial Management. (a) The Recipient shall ensure that a financial management system is maintained in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.07 of the Standard Conditions.
(b) The Recipient shall ensure that interim unaudited financial reports for the Project are prepared and furnished to the World Bank not later than forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar quarter, covering the quarter, in form and substance satisfactory to the World Bank.

(c) The Recipient shall have its Financial Statements audited in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.07 (b) of the Standard Conditions. Each audit of the Financial Statements shall cover the period of one fiscal year of the Recipient. The audited Financial Statements for each such period shall be furnished to the World Bank not later than six (6) months after the end of such period.

2.07. Procurement

All goods and consulting services required for the Project and to be financed out of the proceeds of the Grant shall be procured in accordance with the requirements set forth or referred to in the “World Bank Procurement Regulations for Borrowers under Investment Project Financing” dated July 1, 2016 (“Procurement Regulations”), and the provisions of the Recipient’s procurement plan for the Project (“Procurement Plan”) dated November 3, 2016 provided for under Section IV of the Procurement Regulations, as the same may be updated from time to time in agreement with the World Bank.

Article III
Withdrawal of Grant Proceeds

3.01. Eligible Expenditures. The Recipient may withdraw the proceeds of the Grant in accordance with the provisions of: (a) the Standard Conditions; (b) this Section; and (c) such additional instructions as the World Bank may specify by notice to the Recipient (including the “World Bank Disbursement Guidelines for Projects” dated May 2006, as revised from time to time by the World Bank and as made applicable to this Agreement pursuant to such instructions), to finance Eligible Expenditures as set forth in the following table. The table specifies the categories of Eligible Expenditures that may be financed out of the proceeds of the Grant ("Category"), the allocations of the amounts of the Grant to each Category, and the percentage of expenditures to be financed for Eligible Expenditures in each Category:

3.02. Withdrawal Conditions. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3.01 of this Agreement, no withdrawal shall be made for payments made prior to the date of this Agreement.

3.03. Withdrawal Period. The Closing Date referred to in Section 3.06 (c) of the Standard Conditions is February 15, 2020.

Article IV

Additional Remedies

4.01. Additional Event of Suspension. The Additional Event of Suspension referred to in Section 4.02 (k) of the Standard Conditions consists of the following, namely, the Convention Générale de Coopération, between the Member Country and the Recipient, has been amended, suspended, abrogated, repealed or waived so as to affect materially and adversely the ability of the Recipient to carry out this Agreement.

Article V

Effectiveness; Termination

5.01. This Agreement shall not become effective until evidence satisfactory to the World Bank has been furnished to the World Bank that the following condition, namely, the Project Implementation Manual referred to in Section 2.03(a) of this Annex has been prepared and adopted by the Recipient.

5.02. Except as the Recipient and the World Bank shall otherwise agree, the date on which this Agreement shall enter into effect shall be the date upon which the World Bank dispatches to the Recipient notice of its acceptance of the evidence required pursuant to Section 5.01 of this Annex ("Effective Date"). If, before the Effective Date, any event has occurred which would have entitled the World Bank to suspend the right of the Recipient to make withdrawals from the Grant Account if this Agreement had been effective, the World Bank may postpone the dispatch of the notice referred to in this Section until such event (or events) has (or have) ceased to exist.

5.03. This Agreement and all obligations of the parties under it shall terminate if it has not entered into effect by the date ninety (90) days after the date of this Agreement, unless the World Bank, after consideration of the reasons for the delay, establishes a later date for the purpose of this Section. The World Bank shall promptly notify the Recipient of such later date.

Article VI

Recipient’s Representative; Addresses

6.01. Recipient’s Representative. The Recipient’s Representative referred to in Section 7.02 of the Standard Conditions is its Country Director.

APPENDIX

Modifications to the Standard Conditions

The Standard Conditions are modified as follows:

1. Paragraph 17 of the Appendix (Definitions) is modified to read as follows:

"17. "Member Country" means a member of the World Bank in whose territory the Project is carried out or any of such member's political or administrative subdivisions, and refers separately to each such member."

5. Section 3.07 is modified to read as follows:

"Section 3.07. Financing Taxes

(a) The Grant Agreement may specify that the proceeds of the Grant may not be withdrawn to pay for Taxes levied by, or in the territory of, a Member Country on or in respect of Eligible Expenditures, or on their importation, manufacture, procurement or supply. In such case, if the amount of any such Taxes decreases or increases, the World Bank may, by notice to the Recipient, adjust the percentage of such Eligible Expenditures to be financed out of the proceeds of the Grant specified in the Grant Agreement, as required to ensure consistency with such limitation on withdrawals."

6. Section 4.02 is amended as follows:

(i) Paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

"(a) Interference. If the Grant has been made to a Recipient which is not the Member Country, a Member Country has: (i) taken or permitted to be taken any action which would prevent or interfere with the execution of the Project or the performance by the Recipient of its obligations under the Grant Agreement; or (ii) failed to afford a reasonable opportunity for representatives of the World Bank to visit any part of its territory for purposes related to the Grant or the Project."

(ii) Paragraphs (c) and (d) are amended to read as follows:

"(c) Fraud and Corruption. At any time, the World Bank determines that any representative of the Recipient (or any Member Country, if the Recipient is not the Member Country, or any other recipient of any of the proceeds of the Grant) has engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, coercive or collusive practices in connection with the use of the proceeds of the Grant, without the Recipient (or any such Member Country or any other such recipient) having taken timely and appropriate action satisfactory to the World Bank to address such practices when they occur.

(d) Cross Suspension. IBRD or IDA has suspended in whole or in part the right of the Recipient (or of any Member Country, if the Recipient is not the Member Country) to make withdrawals under any agreement with IBRD or with IDA because of a failure by the Recipient (or by any such Member Country) to perform any of its obligations under such agreement or any other agreement with IBRD or IDA."
(iii) Paragraph (h) is amended to read as follows:

“(h) Membership. A Member Country: (i) has been suspended from membership in or ceased to be a member of IBRD or of IDA; or (ii) has ceased to be a member of the International Monetary Fund.”

(iv) The first sentence of paragraph (i) is amended to read as follows:

“(i) Condition of Recipient. If the Grant has been made to a Recipient which is not a Member Country:”

(v) Paragraph (j) is amended to read as follows:

“(j) Ineligibility. IBRD or IDA has declared the Recipient (other than a Member Country) ineligible to receive proceeds of any financing made by IBRD or IDA or otherwise to participate in the preparation or implementation of any project financed in whole or in part by IBRD or IDA, as a result of: (i) a determination by IBRD or IDA that the Recipient has engaged in fraudulent, corrupt, coercive or collusive practices in connection with the use of the proceeds of any financing made by IBRD or IDA; and/or (ii) a declaration by another financier that the Recipient is ineligible to receive proceeds of any financing made by such financier or otherwise to participate in the preparation or implementation of any project financed in whole or in part by such financier as a result of a determination by such financier that the Recipient has engaged in fraudulent, corrupt, coercive or collusive practices in connection with the use of the proceeds of any financing made by such financier.”

7. Paragraph (c) of Section 4.03 is modified to read as follows:

“(c) Fraud and Corruption. At any time, the World Bank determines, with respect to any amount of the proceeds of the Grant, that corrupt, fraudulent, collusive or coercive practices were engaged in by representatives of the Recipient (or any Member Country, if the Recipient is not a Member Country, or any other recipient of the proceeds of the Grant), without the Recipient (or any such Member Country or other recipient of the proceeds of the Grant) having taken timely and appropriate action satisfactory to the World Bank to address such practices when they occur.”

8. Paragraph (a)(ii) of Section 4.05 is modified to read as follows:

“(ii) (A) engaging in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive or coercive practices in connection with the use of such amount; or (B) use of such amount to finance a contract during the procurement or execution of which such practices were engaged in by representatives of the Recipient (or any Member Country, if the Recipient is not a Member Country, or other recipient of such amount of the Grant), in either case without the Recipient (or any such Member Country, or other such recipient) having taken timely and appropriate action satisfactory to the World Bank to address such practices when they occur.”

9. Paragraph (j) of Section 5.03 is modified to read as follows:

“(i) If, within thirty days after counterparts of the award have been delivered to the parties, the award has not been complied with, any party may: (i) enter judgment upon, or institute a proceeding to enforce, the award in any court of competent jurisdiction against any other party; (ii) enforce such judgment by execution; or (iii) pursue any other appropriate remedy against such other party for the enforcement of the award and the provisions of the Grant Agreement.
Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Recipient is the Member Country, this Section shall not authorize any entry of judgment or enforcement of the award against the Recipient except as such procedure may be available otherwise than by reason of the provisions of this Section."
