ANNEX

Description of Activities and Expenditures under the Trust Fund

1. Purposes and Activities

1.1 The objective of the grant is to support implementation of the basic education sector reform agenda (BESRA) that contributes to the achievement of improved quality and equity in learning outcomes for all Filipinos.

1.2 The activities for which the Grant is provided shall include the following, which may be adjusted by the partners (the Bank, the Donor and the Grant recipient) in the annual work planning processes, during the project implementation:

Recipient Executed

(a) Translation of System-level Policies into Actions: (i) Provision of technical assistance for strategic policy areas and to build the capacity of DepEd to implement and manage change in line with BESRA reforms; (ii) capacity building in regional offices by supporting them to undertake quality assurance functions; (iii) construction and refurbishment of Teaching and Learning Resource Centers across the country, including ICT support to support quality assurance functions and improve teaching learning and assessment; and (iv) reproduction and dissemination of teaching and learning materials (except textbooks) and training programs.

(b) Support for School-Based Management (SBM): provision of SBM grants to disadvantaged elementary schools for implementation of school improvement plans.

(c) Classroom Construction in Southern Philippines: this would involve the construction of academic classrooms in identified priority schools under the Department of Education-managed School Building Program.

Bank-Executed

(a) Demand driven Analytical and Advisory Activities in the sector.

(b) Incremental Supervision.

2. Eligible Categories of Expenditure

The Grant will be used exclusively for the financing of the following categories:

(a) For Recipient-Executed Activities: consultant services, training and workshops, civil works, goods, and school grants.

(b) For Bank-Executed Activities: Consultants’ Fees, Extended term consultants, Associated overhead, Travel expenses, Media and workshops costs and staff costs (salary + benefits + indirect costs).
