In those areas where this is not possible, the invitation for bids shall be posted at such place or places as shall be appropriate.

2. The invitation for bids shall be in local language and in such other language as may be deemed appropriate by the Recipient’s department or agency concerned, and shall include the information referred to in the model invitation for bids set forth in the Association’s sample bidding documents for procurement of small works (in the case of civil works contracts) and for procurement of goods (in the case of goods), published by the Association on January 1995 and January 2001, respectively.

3. With due regard of the nature of the civil works to be provided and the goods to be supplied, the time period for bid submission from the date of invitation shall be sufficient to allow potential bidders a reasonable time to prepare and submit their bids. It shall be no less than thirty (30) calendar days, unless otherwise agreed with the Association.

B. Eligibility

1. The eligibility of bidders and the origin of goods supplied shall be as defined under the “Guidelines for Procurement under IBRD Loans and IDA Credits” published by the Association in January 1995 and revised in January and August 1996, September 1997 and January 1999 (the Guidelines).

2. Foreign bidders shall be allowed to bid, if they wish to do so.

3. Joint ventures between foreign and local firms shall not be a condition for eligibility. Foreign bidders shall be allowed to bid alone. Nevertheless, foreign bidders may be required to have a local agent/intermediary in the Recipient’s territory.
C. Bidding

1. In addition to the invitation for bids, the bidding documents shall include the following:

   (a) instructions to bidders, including the criteria to be used for bid evaluations;

   (b) conditions of contract;

   (c) technical specifications;

   (d) bid form and price schedules; and

In case of civil works, the bidding documents shall also include a bill of quantities or a breakdown of the lump sum price, as the case may be.

2. Bids may be expressed in local currency or in such other foreign currency as may be set forth in the invitation for bids. If the currency of payment set forth in the invitation for bids is the local currency, the invitations may indicate that there is no obligation on the part of the Recipient’s department or agency requesting the bids to convert into foreign currency the amounts to be paid.

3. Bidding documents shall be prepared in the local language or in such other language as may be deemed appropriate by the Recipient’s department or agency concerned.

4. Bids may be delivered by mail or by hand at the place set forth for such purposes in the invitation for bids.

6. Bids may not be rejected for the sole purpose of obtaining lower bids. The Recipient shall consult with the Association prior to rejecting all bids or soliciting new bids. All bids may not be rejected and new bids invited on the same specifications solely for the purposes of obtaining lower prices, except in cases where the lowest evaluated bid exceeds the cost estimates by a substantial amount. In such cases, the Recipient may, as an alternative to rebidding and with the prior concurrence of the Association, negotiate with the lowest evaluated bidder to try to obtain a satisfactory contract, and, failing a satisfactory response, with the next lowest evaluated bidder. Rejection of all bids may be permissible when bids are not substantially responsive or in case of a lack of effective competition.

7. In the comparison of bids between local and foreign bidders, no domestic or regional preference to local bidders shall apply. Bids shall be compared on the basis of delivered price, inclusive of any prevailing duties.

8. Contracts shall be awarded to the lowest evaluated responsive bidder. Price negotiation with bidders shall not be undertaken before the contract is awarded except as provided in paragraph 6 above.

9. The award of contract shall be made within the period specified in the bidding documents. This period shall be determined in each case (goods or works) depending on the complexity of the contract and the approval.

10. A bid evaluation report shall be prepared by the Recipient’s department or agency requesting the bids setting out a record of all bids submitted, the reasons for disqualification of any bids, the criteria, weighing and evaluation of all responsive bids, the recommended award, and, if recommended award is to other than the lowest price bidder, the reasons therefore. The concerned Recipient’s department or agency shall furnish to the Association a translation in the English language of such bid evaluation report in accordance with paragraphs 2 and 3 or Appendix 1 to the Guidelines.

2. Payments out of the Special Account shall be made exclusively for eligible expenditures in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule.

3. After the Association has received evidence satisfactory to it that the Special Account has been duly opened, withdrawals of the Authorized Allocation and subsequent withdrawals to replenish the Special Account shall be made as follows:

   (a) For withdrawals of the Authorized Allocation, the Recipient shall furnish to the Association a request or requests for deposit into the Special Account of an amount or amounts which do not exceed the aggregate amount of the Authorized Allocation. All such deposits shall be withdrawn by the Association from the Grant Account under the respective eligible Categories, and in the respective equivalent amounts, as shall have been justified by said documents and other evidence.
