The objective of the Project is to strengthen the delivery of urban services by the Recipient at municipal-level, particularly in the national capital of Ouagadougou and the regional capitals of Banfora, Bobo-Dioulasso, Kaya, Koudougou, and Ouahigouya.

The Project consists of the following parts:

Part 1. Municipal Support Program

Strengthening technical and financial capacity of the Selected Cities in programming, financing, delivery, and management of infrastructure and urban services, and similar limited activities in Recipient’s other regional capitals and urban municipalities, including:

(a) Strengthening programming and urban management capacity by providing urban planning and programming tools to municipalities and strengthening municipal technical and administrative staff capacity;

(b) Strengthening financial resource mobilization capacity; and

(c) Strengthening administrative and financial management capacity.

Part 2. Support to Urban Development Institutions and Stakeholders

Strengthening stakeholder capacity to support municipalities in service delivery, including:

(a) Establishing sustainable transfer mechanisms to finance local investment financing;

(b) Strengthening capacity for decentralized urban planning; and

(c) Strengthening of national institutions and stakeholders involved in urban development.

Part 3. Project Management, Monitoring and Evaluation

Strengthening of Recipient capacity to coordinate and manage the Project and to monitor and evaluate the Project’s performance.
SCHEDULE 2

Project Execution

Section I. Implementation Arrangements

A. Institutional Arrangements
